Healthcare Merchant Certification

Prevent rogue internet pharmacies from entering your portfolio with LegitScript Certification for healthcare merchants.

There are 2,000 to 3,000 merchants selling prescription drugs on 30,000 to 35,000 websites at any one time. Of these, 96% fail to meet legal requirements. How will you make sure that merchants selling or marketing regulated healthcare products are in compliance? LegitScript is recognized by Visa and Mastercard to provide certification and ongoing monitoring for pharmacy merchants and telemedicine providers. LegitScript's certification experts understand the global regulatory framework and are uniquely positioned to ensure you and your merchants stay in compliance with GBPP and BRAM requirements.

Why get certified?

Protect Your Portfolio
Keep your portfolio clean by identifying and removing rogue merchants from using your services.

Reduce Risk
Reduce the risk of expensive fines by ensuring healthcare merchants are properly licensed and operating under applicable laws and regulations.

Onboard with Confidence
Certification policies from Visa and Mastercard mean you can quickly underwrite and safely onboard high-risk CNP pharmacy merchants who are certified. This can help open up additional business opportunities with trusted healthcare merchants who were previously considered too high-risk to onboard.

Get International Coverage
LegitScript's certification standards are international. You can depend on experts who understand policies and regulations spanning high-risk sectors across the globe.

Work with a Trusted Partner
LegitScript Certification is recommended by Visa and Mastercard to help you stay in compliance with GBPP and BRAM requirements. We are trusted by government agencies and leading enterprise companies around the world, including Google, Bing, Facebook, and TikTok.

Visa and Mastercard require all pharmacies and telemedicine providers, who make card-not-present (CNP) transactions to be certified by a recognized authority. LegitScript is recognized by Visa and Mastercard for this purpose.
